Promoting Child and Family Resilience and Healing in a Pandemic

Project ECHO provides virtual case based learning with experts and other pediatric/family care practices across New Hampshire.

WHAT WILL YOU GAIN?
- Skills to address the mental/behavioral health impact of the pandemic
- Individual provider to provider teleconsults with ECHO subject matter experts

WHEN:
February 2022 - November 2022
4th Tuesday of the Month
12:00 - 1:30pm
Registration Now Open
If interested, email Corina.Chao@ unh.edu

TOPICS INCLUDE
- Building Family Relational Health
- Uses of Occupational Therapy
- Anxiety Related Conditions
- Difficult/Disruptive Behaviors in Children
- Eating Disorders

“I learned so much from others. I really enjoyed hearing what was happening in other clinics and I got an opportunity to reflect on ethical considerations.”
- Participant

SUBJECT MATTER EXPERTS
- Pharmacologist
- Child Psychiatrist
- Occupational Therapist
- Pediatrician
- Social Worker
- Care Coordinator
- Patient/Family Voice
- Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner